Explore various forms of creative writing – starting a blog, creating a sermon or devotion, “traditional” forms of creative writing (story, nonfiction, drama, poetry) – and everything in between at the Faith and Writing Workshop. Attention will be given to social media and new forms of expression, with ample time provided for creative exercises.

The workshop will focus on what it means to create and communicate as a person of faith. What makes for effective communication? How do we cultivate creativity in our lives? What role does faith play in the creative process? Participants are encouraged (but not required) to bring their own work, as well as favorite works by others.
